Description

The small Thai restaurant located on Rigaer Strasse offers an exocitic culinary experience in a very cozy atmosphere with only nine tables. The comfortable setting is enriched by a large saltwater Aquarium. Many guests return to KOY not only to enjoy the notable abundance of each meal, but also to relax with a view of colorful corals and lively fish. Depending on the hour, two types of lighting settings offer additional choice distinctions to this visual experience. Especially popular, not just among the children, are the red and
